Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Adoption Services Great Wall China Adoption provides adoption services to place abandoned Chinese children with U.S. adoptive families. Our services to the families and children include service planning, selection, service delivery, and counseling. The process is comprised of application, adoption training, home study, assembling documents, filing Immigration and Naturalization Services, waiting for a child assignment, travel orientation, travel to China, post adoption supervision, and family support. We provided services to 378 adoptive children, 2599 families in inquiry stage, 472 families in initial phase, and 2021 families in waiting, and 1346 children and families in post adoption services.

Education And Information During the year, Great Wall China Adoption hosted and organized free adoption information seminars for the adoptive families interested in learning about China adoption on a weekly basis throughout the country. This year, we start to conduct online free seminars to educate the public on China adoptions, which enable us to reach out to more families. Each quarter, adoption and travel trainings are held to provide adoptive families in-depth training and understanding of issues related to the adoptive children who are institutionalized and challenges facing the adoptive families. The training curriculum is designed to meet Hague Convention on Protection of Children. Our culture club events are held yearr ound to expose families to Chinese culture and holidays. Free information packet is mailed to the prospective families on a daily basis to provide families with current China adoption updates, status and policies. Total number of educational seminars, training class and culture club events held are 243.

This year, we also produced a very informative and educational seminar in the format of a DVD, which includes some oft he most authoritative and influential speakers and law makers in the areas of child welfare, inter country adoption laws and policies, child psychology and development, race and culture, and inter country adoption medicine. The DVD has been viewed by thousands of families.

Great Wall China Adoption sponsored and organized two annual East MeetsW est China Adoption Conferences, the only national conference in the United States, dedicated to educate the general public and the adoption community regarding Chinese adoptions. The conference offers the attendees the opportunity to hear from nationally known speakers and adoption experts from the fields of social work, cultures, medicine, law, and finance This educational event has gained support from both U.S. and Chinese officials Orphanage directors travel all the way from China to meet children they cared for prior to being adopted by American families, and to speak to conference attendees about orphanage conditions, how childrena re caredf or, andC hina's social welfare system Representing the Chinese government, Officials from the Chinese consulate addressed the attendees on Chinese welfare system, and Chinese adoption laws and policies East Meets West Conference is held twice a year and at different ities. In 2007, two conferences were held in Dallas, TX and Tampa, FL separately. Great Wall has a team of staff responsible for organizing all the logistics of these annual conferences. Total number of attendees increased by 25% and reached 625

Great Wall published monthly newsletter providing education and information on latest adoption policies and procedures, adoption stories written by fellow adoptive families Great Wall also publishes an outreach newsletters intended for social services organizations we collaborate providing upt od ate information on China adoption laws, Hague Conventions, and adoption related issues

EIN: 74-2786077

To better educate our families and prepare them for the journey of adoption, Great Wall China Adoption has set up regional offices in 50 statest o provide education and support to the families. The regional offices provide educational seminars and individual meetings

Donations to Help The Abandoned Children In China Through Our Charity Mission Programs Great Wall China Adoption definitely has the best interest of children in mind It not only works extremely hard to locate loving homes for the abandoned Chinese children, it is also doing its best to offer help to the many children that are not fortunate enough to be adopted With Great Wall's CharityM ission Programs, many children are able to have colorful toys to stimulate their sensory growth; books to broad their knowledge, children got new donated clothes for the holidays, much needed equipment such as refrigerator, digital cameras, washers, dryers, computers, printers, were also donated to improve the life of children still in orphanages Working with the CCAA, our donations help fund training to the Chinese orphanage directors, care takers, and staff to improve their care of the children.

Achievements That Are Not Measurable Great Wall China Adoption's adoption program has contributed greatly to the better life of the children and the improvement of orphanage conditions. We certainly have witnessed many Chinese orphanages that we have worked with in the last decade transformed from poor conditions to a full service children's home with adequate facility and trained care takers. We believe that every child deserves love and a home they can call their wing The children adopted through Great Wall China Adoption are showed with endless love by their adoptive families. Physically and developmentally, they blossom like flowers after being adopted. Many of our adoptive parentss ought our help after years of painful infertility treatment. The joy and excitement of becoming parent(s) are just beyond description. For these infertile parent(s), it's a lifetime dream coming true. For Great Wall China Adoption's staff, creating families for the children and adoptive parent(s) is our greatest achievement.

The impact that Great Wall education workshops, training classes, and East Meets West China Adoption conference has created is far from being measurable. They greatly increased the awareness that there are still thousandso f abandoned children waiting in the Chinese orphanages for a loving home.

Great Wall China Adoption's noble charitable work has attracted many people who want to be in the profession of doing good things to the society.
