Statement Regarding Matthew Alan Mancuso Sentencing

Today justice was finally served with the 35 to 70 year consecutive sentence imposed on Matthew Alan Mancuso by The Honorable Donna Jo McDaniel of the Fifth Judicial District of Pennsylvania. McDaniel called the case the "most heinous" she's seen in more than 20 years on the bench.

Mancuso's victim is relieved that he will never again be allowed to abuse another child and that he will die in prison.

On August 11, 2005, Mancuso pled guilty to child rape, incest, and unlawful restraint for abuse which lasted over five years.

The victim, who was five when Mancuso adopted her from a Russian orphanage, is with her family in seclusion and is not available for media interviews.

All media and other inquiries relating to this story should be directed to Marsh & Gaughran LLP.
