

LIAISON AGENCIES

These are some of the agencies with whom our families have worked successfully, and with whom FCCA has a written agreement, as required by California law. These agencies work independently from FCCA, and are listed here only as potential resources for families. Agencies not listed may also be used, upon mutual written agreement between the agency and FCCA. FCCA recommends that families thoroughly research their options before making a choice. FCCA cannot and does not endorse, control, or guarantee the work of any other agency or country in relation to their adoption programs.
