

Don't be afraid sweet child, God has heard your cry.
Across the ocean, in our hearts, he's placed a love that will not die.

from Anastasia by Kevin Hollinger

If you have adopted with Reaching Arms International (RAI), it has been a pleasure to work with you and provide domestic or international adoption services for your family.

Reaching Arms International is no longer providing child placing services. If you are a former client of RAI with an adoption pending, your file was sent to The Department of Human Services' designee, Children's Home Society & Family Services. Children's Home Society & Family Services is available to assist you in assessing your adoption file and answering questions so that you may assess how you would like to proceed.

You can contact Children's Home Society & Family Services as follows:

If you have already determined that you wish to have your file transferred to a different agency, you should send a written request to Deb Harder or Carol Weins at:

1605 Eustis Street,
St. Paul Minnesota 55108-1219

If you are a former client of Reaching Arms International and your adoption has been finalized, your closed adoption file was transferred to:
