Its U.S. staff and local Chinese representative worked diligently to ensure that the adoption process went smoothly and problem-free, and was conducted in the best interest of the adopted children and the adoptive families. Since it is an international adoption, the majority of its tasks are carried by Great Wall China Adoption local Chinese representatives in China, which includes:

- Delivery and registration of the documents with China Center of Adoption Affairs (Chinese government adoption authorities)
- Monitoring the status of the paperwork, working with Chinese adoption officials on a daily basis

Great Wall China Adoption

EIN: 74-2786077

Form 990, 2003

Part VIII – Relationship of Activities to the Accomplishment of Exempt Purposes

Great Wall China Adoption's operation is mainly supported by child placement service fees collected from the adoptive parents.

Child placement service fees were gathered from 1,200 families in 2003 to assist them in the adoptions of abandoned Chinese children. The fees covered the costs of reviewing adoption applications, adoption workshops, adoption education and information materials, adoption training, Chinese language classes, adoption home study by the social workers, criminal and child abuse investigation on the adoptive families with the state, working with Immigration and Naturalization Services, assembling paper work for the Chinese government, translation of documents from English to Chinese and from Chinese to English, child referral, Great Wall China Adoption's local Chinese representatives' service in China, domestic and international communication and postage, internet and web site, continuous adoption counseling to the adoptive families, staff training and education, Great Wall China Adoption newsletter, Great Wall China Adoption support groups, post adoption supervision by the social workers, court validation, and Great Wall China Adoption's administration.

Great Wall China Adoption's child placement services averaged at $5,000 per adoption, are one of the lowest among American agencies assisting families adopting from China. Great Wall China Adoption's fees are also drastically lower than most of the American agencies doing foreign and domestic adoptions. Great Wall China Adoption believes that the purpose of the fees is to help the children and families realize their dreams, not to gain profit. Due to Great Wall China Adoption's low cost philosophy, more American families will be able to afford the adoption, therefore, more abandoned Chinese children will be brought out of the institutions and have a bright future here in the United States.
